

Reading Association of Ireland

Cumann Léitheoireachta na hÉireann

Special Seminar

Dr. Greg Brooks,
University of Sheffield, England

will speak on

‘What works for pupils with literacy difficulties:
The effectiveness of intervention schemes’

at St Patrick’s College
Drumcondra, Dublin 9

7.30 p.m. on Monday, February 9th, 2009

The presentation focuses on characteristics of effective intervention programmes in reading, spelling and overall writing for at-risk readers at primary and post-primary levels (Years 1-11).

The presentation is intended for class and support teachers and literacy co-ordinators. The strategies include Family Literacy, Reading Recovery and Paired Reading.

Please book by contacting Hilary Walshe at 01-8373789 or e-mailing hilary.walshe@erc.ie as places are limited.

The charge for attending is €5 for non-members. Members free.