The Reading Association of Ireland presents

a Summer Seminar on ‘Teaching Vocabulary as Part of an Effective Literacy Programme’

by Gene Mehigan

at the Marino Institute of Education

Griffith Ave., Dublin 9

on

Wednesday, May 20th 2009

@ 7.00 p.m

While there is no universal solution for optimizing literacy achievement, recent research on teaching reading has been unequivocal in its support for robust vocabulary teaching as an element of effective literacy instruction. This presentation examines crucial facts about words and word learning and explores strategies for rich and powerful vocabulary instruction in the primary classroom.
