

Predict!

Using fiction and narrative stories

Predict before reading

Look at the illustrations on each page of the story

What do you predict the story line will be about?

---

---

---

---

Scan the text for capital letters.

Write down the names of the characters in the story.

---

---

---

Write down the settings and the names of some of the places in the story.

Settings (When and where)

---

---

Names of places

---

---

Scan the text for words you do not understand

Write out the words you cannot say or cannot understand. Write ONE word on each line.

---

---

---

---

Predict while you read

Write down your thoughts as you read.

I think...is going to happen because...

I noticed a clue that the author put in which makes me think that... is going to happen next.

Predict after you have read

What do you think will happen after the story is over? Give a good reason for you answer.

What do you think the main character will do next? Give a good reason for you answer.
